Dear Mr. Andrews:

Thank you for your letter of January 5, 1992 concerning your constituent's inquiry about the fate of Raoul Wallenberg.

The United States has inquired with the Soviet and Russian governments about the fate of Raoul Wallenberg at several high level meetings. President Bush raised the issue during his August 1991 summit with former Soviet President Gorbachev.

The Swedish government has indicated that the Russian government is cooperating fully in the ongoing investigations. The joint Russian-Swedish commission looking into the Wallenberg case has been granted access to a number of Russian archives and officials who may have relevant information.

We hope that the ongoing inquiries will at last determine the fate of this heroic statesman who sacrificed everything to help others.

Sincerely,

Janet G. Mullins
Assistant Secretary
Legislative Affairs
